

---

Final agenda

17 November 2016

Overseas Development Institute (ODI), London, UK

---

09:00 - 09:30 Welcome and overview – Leni Wild (ODI) and Lant Pritchett (Harvard Kennedy School)

09:30 - 11:00 Who is doing development differently?

Chair: Salimah Samji (BSC, Harvard University's Center for International Development)

- Jonathan Beloe (IRC)
- Taylor Brown (Palladium)
- Duncan Green (Oxfam)
- Panthea Lee (Reboot)

---

11:00 - 11:30 Break

11:30 - 13:00 Putting PDIA into practice - what works, what doesn't and what's different?

Chair: Peter Harrington (BSC, Harvard University's Center for International Development)

- Vanessa Parker (National Treasury, South Africa)
- Jonida Pone (Ministry of Urban Development, Albania)
- Salimah Samji (BSC, Harvard University's Center for International Development)

---

13:00 - 14:00 Lunch

14:00 - 15:30 Question time: Can large donor agencies do things differently?

Chair: Leni Wild (ODI)

- Natalia Adler (UNICEF)
- Richard Butterworth (DFID)
- Lena Ingelstam (Sida)
- Kathy Bain (Independent)

---

15:30 - 16:00 Break

16:00 - 17:00 Breakout groups - Advancing results and learning: can we be more ambitious?

Discussions will reflect on specific examples of more adaptive results and learning, and identify priority actions.

Introduced by: Craig Valters (ODI)

- Learning and adaption for public sector reforms in Nigeria – Hamish Nixon (ODI) and Helen Derbyshire (PERL/Independent)
- PDIA in action – Lant Pritchett (Harvard Kennedy School) and Matt Andrews (BSC, Harvard University's Center for International Development)s
- Building learning within government programmes – Nadim Matta (Rapid Results Institute) and Simon Gill (BSI)
- Communicating results and building public and political engagement – David Hudson (UCL) and Leni Wild (ODI)

17:00 - 18:00 Putting ideas into action: wrap up, priorities and next steps

- Matt Andrews (BSC, Harvard University's Center for International Development)
- Marta Foresti (ODI)

---

18:00 - 18:45 Drinks reception

---