KEY EXPERIENCE

- I am a development geographer with training from Cambridge, LSE and Leicester University in environmental change, development studies, environmental economics and political science.
- Based in New Delhi, India, I specialise in building resilience and adaptation to climate change through research, policy and practice. Focus areas of climate change policy and planning, urban resilience, organisational change, political economy, and child-led approaches to resilience.
- Currently an ODI Research Associate, based in New Delhi, India, I previously led ODI's work on climate change adaptation and resilience as a Team Leader. Earlier I established the work on climate adaptation at the Institute of Development Studies (IDS), UK.
- My experience spans life as a researcher, UN programme manager, aid agency policy maker, and country negotiator in UN conventions on climate change (UNFCCC) and desertification (UNCCD).
- I have provided policy advice and research leadership in many partnerships including: with developing country researchers; with governments in India, Bangladesh, China and UK; with agencies including ActionAid, Asian Development Bank, DANIDA, DFID, OECD, SIDA, Plan International, Rockefeller Foundation, Tearfund, UNDP, UNESCAP, UNICEF, WWF, World Bank.
- Author of the leading textbook on Climate Change and Development (2014, Routledge) and new book on Disaster Risk Management (2017, Springer), I have also written 28 peer reviewed journal articles, edited journal special issues, and I am a contributing author to IPCC and World Disaster reports. I am a peer reviewer for leading international journals Global Environmental Change, Climate & Development, Climate Policy, and Local Environment. My academic work has been cited by others over 2300 times - Google Scholar.

CAREER

- May 2016 – present – Research Associate, Risk and Resilience Programme, Overseas Development Institute (ODI), UK
- Apr 2014 – May 2016 – Senior Research Fellow and Team Leader, Adaptation and Resilience, Overseas Development Institute (ODI), UK
- Jan 2006 – Mar 2014 – Research Fellow in Climate Change and Development, Institute of Development Studies (IDS), Brighton, UK
- Jul 2005 – Jan 2006 – EU Coordinator, UN Convention to Combat Desertification, Department for International Development (DFID) Policy Division
- Oct 2003 – Jul 2005 – Climate Change Policy Advisor, Comprehensive Disaster Management Programme (CDMP), UN Development Programme (UNDP), Bangladesh
- Sep 2002 – Oct 2003 – Associate Professional Officer, Department for International Development, Environment Policy Division and Asia Division
- Sep 1998 – Aug 2002 – Doctoral Scholar, Teaching and Research Assistant, University of Leicester, UK

SELECTED RESEARCH MANAGEMENT EXPERTISE

---

Co-convenor, Understanding the Resilience Experience (2016-178)

Overseeing a review of global resilience thinking and practice to establish challenges and future strategies. (Rockefeller Foundation funded)

Project Director, Resilience Scans for Development (2013-17)

Coordinating systematic reviews and deep dive analytical research on resilience and development theory, policy and practice. (Rockefeller Foundation funded)

Team Leader, Knowledge, Research and M&E for UCCTRF (2015)

Managing team of experts to provide Technical Assistance to operationalise the knowledge, learning and M&E components of the Urban Climate Change Resilience Trust Fund (Asian Development Bank funded)

Project Coordinator, Triple Dividend of Disaster Risk Management (2014-16)

Coordinating a research project on the co-benefits of resilience investments, with case studies in Mexico, Jamaica, Senegal and Philippines. (World Bank GFDRR funded)

Adaptation Advisor, Indo-UK Collaborative Research Programme on Climate Change (2007-2014)

Technical advisor to India Ministry of Environment and Forests on a 7 year interdisciplinary research programme across India on climate change impacts & adaptation. (UK DECC funded)

Programme Coordinator, Learning Hub for Low Carbon Climate Resilient Development (2010-13)

2.5 year learning network and research programme for UK government staff; Thematic learning cycles and events in UK, India, Ethiopia, Indonesia. (UK DFID funded)

Programme Coordinator, Understanding the Political Economy of Climate Change (2010-13)

Research and advocacy programme examining international and country-level politics of international climate initiatives in Nepal, Bangladesh, Mozambique & Brazil. (DFID funded)

Principle Investigator, Child-centred DRR in the Philippines & El Salvador (2007-11)

3.5 year action research programme partnering NGO Plan International examining the role of children and young people as agents of change for DRR and climate change adaptation. (Economic and Social Research Council / Plan UK funded)

---

Project Coordinator, Urban Governance for Climate Change Adaptation in Asia (2009)

Governance and capacity assessment for adaptation in ten Asian cities in India, Indonesia, Thailand, China and Vietnam for the ACCCRN programme. (Rockefeller Foundation Funded)

Programme Coordinator, Opportunities & Risks of Climate Change and Disasters (ORCHID) (2006-9)

Led multi-partner screening methodology funded by DFID to assess climate change risks and opportunities in India, Bangladesh and China. (DFID funded)

---

NON-RESEARCH POLICY AND PROGRAMMING EXPERIENCE

UNCCD Coordinator, Department for International Development (DFID) Policy Division

During the UK's presidency of the EU in 2005, responsible for preparing and negotiating the EU position on the UN Convention to Combat Desertification. Subsequent advisory inputs informed the establishment of an International Inter-governmental Working Group for the development of the 10 year future strategic vision for the Convention.

Climate Change Policy Adviser, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Bangladesh

From 2003-2005, developed and established a US$2 million climate change programme with the Government of Bangladesh (GoB) as part of the Comprehensive Disaster Management Programme (CDMP). Provided technical advice, UNFCCC briefings, established the programme, budget and activities for the GoB 'Climate Change Cell'.

Climate change and environment Policy Officer, DFID Environment Policy Department & Asia Division

Worked 2003-2005 on DFID climate change policy and integration of climate change and environment into DFID programmes. Experience of preparing environmental and climate assessments for donor programmes, policy guidance to country offices, and preparation/negotiation on the UK delegation at UNFCCC and UNCCD meetings
